COMPANIES (PROHIBITION OF BEARER SHARES AND NOMINEE DIRECTORS) AMENDMENT BILL 2025

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This Bill seeks to amend the Companies Act 1981 and the Limited Liability Company Act 2016 to require, among other things, that existing bearer shares be converted to registered shares in companies and limited liability companies and to require that exempted companies and exempted LLCs discontinuing to another jurisdiction appoint a local agent to retain the company's and limited liability company's beneficial ownership register and records of account for a minimum of five years. The Companies Act 1981 is further amended to prohibit the appointment of nominee directors and to require additional particulars to be disclosed with respect to alternate directors.

Clause 1 provides a citation for the Bill.

Clause 2 amends the Companies Act 1981 (the Act) in the section 2, by repealing and replacing the definition of "director" and inserting a new subsection (1A), to explicitly prohibit the appointment of nominee directors. The Act is amended by inserting a new section 53A that requires, among other things, that existing bearer shares be converted to registered shares within three months of the coming into operation of the section. Sections 92A and 92B of the Act are amended to require additional particulars to be disclosed with respect to alternate directors relating to whether a director holds the position as an alternate and the identity of the director for whom the alternate director is holding the position. Sections 132G and 132H of the Act are amended to require that exempted companies discontinuing to another jurisdiction appoint a local agent to retain the company's beneficial ownership register and records of account for a minimum of five years from the effective date of discontinuance and to require that such appointment and retention of the beneficial ownership register and records of account be contained in an irrevocable deed poll that is filed with the Registrar.

Clause 3 amends the Limited Liability Company Act 2016 (the Act) to insert a new section 85A to require, among other things, that existing bearer shares be converted to registered shares within three months of the coming into operation of the section. Sections 97 and 98 of the Act are amended to require that exempted LLCs discontinuing to another jurisdiction appoint a local agent to retain the exempted LLC's beneficial ownership register and records of account for a minimum of five years from the effective date of discontinuance and to require that such appointment and retention of the beneficial ownership register and records of account be contained in an irrevocable deed poll that is filed with the Registrar.
